6 WHO WILL WE SHARE YOUR INFORMATION WITH?

- 6.1 We will only use your Personal Data within the Diocese for the purposes for which it was obtained, unless you have explicitly agreed that we may share your Personal Data with another organisation or unless we are otherwise permitted or required to under the Data Protection Rules or order of a Court or other competent regulatory body or as set out in this Notice.

- 6.2 We may share your information with other members of the Church whose role involves dealing with people who are experiencing social difficulties (eg SVP who carry out calls to the sick and housebound, organise healing services, parties and outings) and any ecclesiastical body enjoying canonical jurisdiction or powers of governance as detailed in the Code of Canon law. The Catholic Church is subject to Canon Law (Laws of the Church) as well as civil/criminal laws. Canon Law gives the Tribunal for example the power to investigate the validity of a marriage.

- 6.3 We may share your information with government bodies for tax purposes or law enforcement agencies for the prevention and detection of crime. There are occasions when these bodies may have to go to court to obtain an Order before this information is shared.
- 6.4 Sometimes the Diocese contracts with third parties whom we ask to Process Personal Data on our behalf (e.g. IT consultants, distributors of parish newsletters and directories). We require these third parties to comply strictly with our instructions and with the GDPR. There will be a written agreement between the Data Controller and Data Processor.
- 6.5 The Diocese buys in payroll administration from a third party. An agreement in line with GDPR is entered into between the two parties. There may be some work carried out by volunteers at home e.g. safeguarding. Strict guidelines are in place.
- 6.6
- 6.7 We also may be required to share your Personal Data so that the Diocese can benefit from Gift Aid nominations you have made e.g. with HMRC.
- 6.8 We have in place administrative, technical and physical measures designed to guard against and minimise the risk of loss, misuse or unauthorised processing or disclosure of the Personal Data that we hold.
- 6.9 In the course of Processing your Personal Data, or disclosing it to the recipients referred to above, we may transfer it to countries which are outside the European Economic Area (EEA), some of which may not have laws which provide the same level of protection to your Personal Data as laws inside the EEA. In such cases we will take steps to ensure that the transfers comply with the GDPR and that your Personal Data is appropriately protected but cannot guarantee the protection of your data.. We do so by taking the following measures:
- 6.9.1 [putting in place a contract with the recipient that means they must protect the personal information to the same standards as is required in the EEA]; We may send papers to an ecclesiastical jurisdiction outside of the EEA and we cannot be held responsible for the controls that these ecclesiastical jurisdictions have in place (eg Marriage papers in a non-EEA country)
- 6.9.2 [transferring it to a non-EEA country with privacy laws that give the same protection as the EEA];
- 6.9.3 [transferring it to organisations that are part of Privacy Shield (or any successor or replacement scheme). This is a framework that sets privacy standards for data sent between the US and EU countries to ensure that those standards are similar to what are used within the EEA];
- 6.9.4 [transferring it to organisations or countries that have other approved certification schemes or codes in place]; or
- 6.9.5 [relying on another appropriate ground under applicable data protection laws].].

"Data Controller" means a person, organisation or body that determines the purposes for which, and the manner in which, any Personal Data is processed. A Data Controller is responsible for complying with the data protection laws including the GDPR and establishing practices and policies in line with them.

"Data Processor" means any person, organisation or body that Processes personal data on behalf of and on the instruction of the Diocese. Data Processors have a duty to protect the information they process by following data protection laws.

"Data Subject" means a living individual about whom the Diocese processes Personal Data and who can be identified from the Personal Data. A Data Subject need not be a UK national or resident. All Data Subjects have legal rights in relation to their Personal Data and the information that the Diocese holds about them.

"Personal Data" means any information relating to a living individual who can be identified from that information or in conjunction with other information which is in, or is likely to come into, the Diocese's possession. Personal Data can be factual (such as a name, address or date of birth) or it can be an opinion (e.g. a performance appraisal). It can even include a simple email address. A mere mention of someone's name in a document does not necessarily constitute Personal Data, but personal details such as someone's contact details or salary (if it enabled an individual to be identified) would fall within the definition.

"Processing" means any activity that involves use of Personal Data. It includes obtaining, recording or holding the information or carrying out any operation or set of operations on it, including organising, amending, retrieving, using, disclosing, erasing or destroying it. Processing also includes transferring or disclosing Personal Data to third parties.

"Special Categories of Personal Data" (previously called sensitive personal data) means information about a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or similar beliefs, trade union membership, physical or mental health or condition or sexuality. It also includes genetic and biometric data. Special Categories of Personal Data can only be processed under strict conditions and such processing will usually, although not always, require the explicit consent of the Data Subject.
